Marquard's Lane Has No Turning

The limit of time precludes Rube Marquard's equalling his nineteen straight. The string of 1912 was made up of victories, while this year's sequence is composed of defeats. The overthrow of the Rube by Chicago yesterday was his eleventh straight defeat, this string Marquard has been fa-In this string Marquard has been fa-yored by some hard lock, just as he had some very good lock in his nine-teen straight. he has been beaten 1 to 0.

But Rube is not the only person bent on showing how long a worm can go without turning. Cy Morton, of the Cleveland Naps, has lost twelve straight games, several of which were well pitched. Greatest of all the good lostices the control of the contr pitched. Greatest of all the good los-ers of the season are the Cinelanati Reds. Nobody can lose any better than Herzog's men, for they have dropped seventeen games in a row. The Red Sox once lost twenty-one, but the Reds have a fine chance to set that mark

Outfielder of Cubs.

Chicago. Sept. 21.—Tommy Leach, outfielder of the Chicago Cubs, has been offered the management of the Pittsburgh Federals, according to a story printed here to-day.

Unless he gets a three-year contract from the Chicago Club, which President Thomas is said to be loath to grant, Leach is likely to join the outlaws, says the story.

LEAD GOLF FIELD

Former Wins on Play-Off Nine Holes-Lewis Sets a Record for the Course.

Youth was served yesterday, who the thirty-six-hole qualifying frame of the invitation golf tournament was me off over the links of the Greenwin Gountry Club.

Maxwell R. Marston, of Balturel who recently reached his majority, as Reginald M. Lewis, of Ridgefield, a lad of eighteen, tied for the medal win 151 cach. This was two strokes better than the score made by Hamilton K. Kerr, of the home club, and three better than the round of Francis Quemet, the national amasteur champies, who turned in 154. Lewis and Marstep played off the tie over nine holes, as the Baltusrol youth won, with a strokes to 39.

Lewis had an excellent opportunity to carry off the honors, for on the first course. The previous mark was the held jointly by Samuel J. Graham as Henry J. Topping. The Ridgefield youngster, however, after going out in 38 in the afternoon, lapsed on the inward journey and required 41, for a total of 79. Marston scored 74 in morning and 77 in the afternoon.

Ouimet had never played the course, and his 79 on the first round was and his 79 on the fi morning and 77 in the afternoon.

Ouimet had never played the course and his 79 on the first round was largely due to a poor start. He hocked his first drive sharply into the wood and it was never seen again. Thus he was necessary for him to tee up and play three, so that he took 6 fer seasy 4 hole. The hardness of the ground, due to the lack of rain, pan Ouimet opportunities for great length which he did not overlook. This was shown at the 600-yard fourteenth hele in the morning, where, after driving.

shown at the 600-yard fourteenth had in the morning, where, after driving a ball out of bounds, he reached the green in two shots.

While the amateur champion pulled some of his drives, a tendency he had and lost at least four strokes in the way, the chief reason for his failure he lead the field lay in the fact that his approach shots lacked their usual accuracy. The hall on his pitch shou failed to take hold of the baked green, and for that reason he gave himself a lot to do in putting.
